

European Generation Link

Promote European Citizenship through Intergenerational and Intercultural Learning

Multiplier Seminar

Baden/Austria

September 16th–17th 2008

Accommodation and venue: Hotel Caruso, Trostgasse 23, A-2500 Baden

Tuesday 16th September 2008

12.30 Lunch for partners and guests at the hotel

13.30 Opening and introduction (Helmut Kronika, BEST)

- Contents – programme
- EGL DVD presentation
- Project overview

14.15 European Generation Link – the concept behind it
Karin Hochmayer, BEST

14.35 “Love etc.” – Analysis of stories on the EGL platform
Pamela Clayton, University of Glasgow

15:00 Break

15.20 Intergenerational Learning in Practice:
Our Pilot Test Experience (Judit Koppány Artemisszió)

15:50 The European Context: priorities and trends, ideas for awareness raising
Aleksandra Sikorska, Volkshochschule Cham

16.15 Story Highlights (Lorena Stoica, Carpathian Foundation)
questions & answers, discussion

17.00 Close of day (Helmut Kronika, BEST)

19.00 Social dinner for partners and guests

Multiplier Seminar

Baden/Austria

September 16th–17th 2008

Wednesday 17th September 2008

09.00 Summary of first day

09.15 Workshops

- Intergenerational & Intercultural Learning and Gender Sensitive Teaching & Counselling in daily practice: ideas on implementation and use in our context

10.50 Break

11.00 Presentation of results

11.30 Questions and discussion

12:00 Presentation of other projects

12:30 Lunch

13:30 EGL practical session

15:00 Deployment Issues

16:00 Summary of Conference (Helmut Kronika, BEST)

16:30 End of Conference

European Generation Link

Promote European Citizenship through Intergenerational and Intercultural Learning